

Peter C. Wendell

Director since 2003

Committees: Compensation and Benefits | Research

Experience

Mr. Wendell has extensive management, financial and venture capital expertise as demonstrated by his positions as a managing director of Sierra Ventures, his service as a board member and Senior Advisor at WestBridge Capital, his status as a lecturer in strategic management at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business for over 20 years, and his former chairmanship of the Princeton University endowment.

Career highlights

Sierra Ventures, technology-oriented venture capital firm

- Managing director (1982-present)

Stanford University

- Faculty, Stanford University Graduate School of Business (1991-present)

