

Philanthropy at Merck

Philanthropy is an important component of our company's commitment to corporate responsibility.

Through our philanthropic programs, we have the ability to bring about positive change by addressing complex global health challenges and improving the quality of life in communities where we have a presence.

To learn more, visit MSDresponsibility.com

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

SDG 3 is at the core of our business and is aligned with our mission to save and improve lives.

Addressing the impact of NCDs

Alzheimer's Disease

Chronic conditions

Cancer

Diabetes

The Merck Foundation has invested approximately $50 million since 2015 to help reduce health disparities and increase access to high-quality care for non-communicable diseases (NCDs).

Fellowship for Global Health

35

NGOs

(Between 2012-2019)

25

countries

220

employees

The Fellowship is a three-month, corporate, pro-bono program designed to leverage the skills and talents of our employees worldwide.

Merck for Mothers

$500M

A $500 million initiative, Merck for Mothers reflects our company's goal to help create a world where no woman has to die giving life.

11.2M

Since 2012, Merck for Mothers has helped reach approximately 11.2 million women in 48 countries around the world.

Product donations (2019)

2.2M

30-day prescriptions filled through our U.S. Patient Assistance Program

~458K

Estimated number of people reached through our Medical Outreach Program

Total giving in 2019

Product donations	$3.0 B
Cash grants & contributions	$82.0M
Skills-based volunteering	$5.3M
Total amount	$3.1 B

